First honoree will be recognized in February for contributions to the community

Goshen, N.Y. – County Executive Steven M. Neuhaus is proud to announce the introduction of his Citizen of the Month Award, which will acknowledge outstanding Orange County residents.

Neuhaus recognizes that there are people we interact with every day that are doing extraordinary things and is seeking nominations for this honor. He will announce his first Citizen of the Month in February.

“The Citizen of the Month Award provides us with a wonderful opportunity to pay tribute to some of the outstanding residents who make Orange County such a great place to live,” Neuhaus said. “There are so many people throughout our County doing impressive things. They take great pride in serving their communities and should be acknowledged, thanked and honored for all that they do.”
