Annual Orange County Veterans Spring Picnic and Resource Fair set for May 6th

All veterans, military personnel, and their families are invited to the event

Goshen, N.Y. – Orange County Executive Steven M. Neuhaus and Veterans Services Agency Director Christian Farrell are pleased to invite veterans, active-duty military, members of the Guard and Reserve, and their family members to the 2017 Orange County Veterans Spring Picnic and Resource Fair on Saturday, May 6th.

“I always look forward to attending the picnic and spending time with our veterans,” Neuhaus said. “This wonderful event provides another opportunity to show these brave men and women our appreciation. I anticipate another great picnic and resource fair, and I hope local veterans and active duty military will come with their families and enjoy a wonderful day at the park.”

All veterans and military personnel and their families are invited to relax and enjoy the free picnic-style barbecue and to take advantage of helpful information regarding a wide variety of veterans’ issues from participating government agencies and support groups.

The picnic, hosted by the County Executive’s Office, Orange County Veterans Service Agency, and the Orange County Veterans Coalition, will run from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Thomas Bull Memorial Park, Route 416, Hamptonburgh, in the Day Camp Pavilion.

“The annual veterans picnic and resource fair offers a special way for local veterans and their families to learn about what services and benefits are available to them from county agencies and other organizations,” Farrell said. “The most important part of the day for me is seeing veterans talking, smiling, and laughing with their peers. That’s what it’s all about.”
