

THE ORANGE COUNTY HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

PRESENTS:

The Orange County Social Justice Network

The Orange County Human Rights Commission is committed to reducing all forms of oppression in Orange County through various social justice efforts. The Social Justice Network meetings are held bi-monthly throughout the County as part of their work to increase dialogue, and mutual respect and understanding in our community.

2019 MEETING DATES & SCHEDULE OF TOPICS:

February 28th: Self Care in the Fight for Others

April 25th: Diversity and Inclusion in the Workplace: What's Next?

June 27th: Language: Why Words Matter

Sept. 26th: Privileges: Which ones do I have? What do I do with them?

November 21st: Discrimination Complaints 101

12:30pm-1:30pm

40 Matthews Street, Suite 302 Conference Room, in Goshen.

Anyone interested in learning more about issues of oppression and their individual roles in reducing discrimination and prejudice in our community is invited.

Space is limited, and dates are subject to change. To RSVP please contact:

Inaudy Esposito- iesposito@orangecountygov.com

