Subject: Sex Offender Arrest for Failure to Register- For Immediate Release
Date: May 7, 2019

Sheriff Carl E. DuBois Announces the Arrest of a Town of Greenville Man for Failure to Register as a Sex Offender

Town of Greenville, NY— On March 4, 2019, Investigators from the Orange County Sheriff's Office charged 31-year-old, Town of Greenville Man, Mikell A. Phillips with the Correction Law Offense of Failure to Register as a Sex Offender – Prior Offense, a Class "D" Felony. The arrest was a result of an investigation into the verification of an address that Phillips reported to be residing at, in the Town of Greenville, in November of 2018.

In February of this year, Investigators conducted a spot check of the residence, and observed boarded up windows and doors, and saw no appearance the residence was occupied. Further investigation revealed that the property had been foreclosed on in July of 2018, and the occupants were evicted from the residence in December of 2018. Investigators learned that Phillips was living at a residence located in Ellenville, Ulster County, New York, not at the Town of Greenville address given. Having failed to update his new address within the ten-day window, as mandated by NYS law, Mikell A. Phillips was placed under arrested and charged.

Phillips was arraigned before the Honorable Gregory Wieboldt in the Town of Greenville Court, and remanded to the Orange County Jail on $5,000 Cash Bail or $20,000 Bond. Phillips' later appeared in the Town of Greenville Court to answer to the charges.
