Climate-Smart Montgomery Expo

HeatSmart Orange, the Town of Montgomery Conservation Advisory Council, and the Montgomery Repair Café invite you to an afternoon of outdoor fun, a mini Repair Café and practical home energy efficiency information at the Climate-Smart Montgomery Expo, Sunday, September 20 from 1:30 – 4:30 pm at Benedict Farm Park in Montgomery.

Bring an item for repair and enjoy free food, environmental crafts, games, and practical efficiency info. Meet local energy experts to learn about modern energy-saving heating and the generous incentives available right now in New York.

The Climate-Smart Montgomery Expo is free and open to the public. One tree will be planted for every registered attendee! The event's rain date is September 27. Registration recommended.

Enroll in HeatSmart to get local, nonprofit assistance and find incentive funds to offset your home efficiency investments. HeatSmartNY.com or (914) 302-7300, ext. 1
