

Hiring – Licensed Electricians

Licensed Electricians at Tesla are on the cutting edge of renewable energy product installation and deployment. All new Tesla Energy products – including Powerwall, Solar Roof, Retrofit PV and Tesla Home Charging – are first tested and piloted by our internal Tesla installers. Tesla engineers rely heavily on direct feedback from the field, so you will have the opportunity to grow and connect directly with Tesla products.

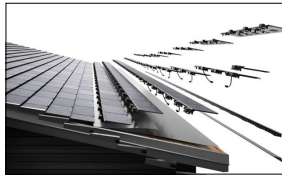

Tesla Energy Products

Powerwall

Solar Panels

Solar Roof

Tesla Home Charging

Powerpack

Megapack

Tesla Incentives

Tesla employee benefits include great healthcare and give employees financial and professional stability. Some of the most talked-about benefits include the following:

- Excellent and affordable medical insurance plan that includes Dental and Vision coverage
- Paid time off and holidays
- Company stock purchase at a 15% discount that is available twice a year
- Legal consultation for $18 a month
- 12 weeks of maternity and 7 weeks of paternity leave
- Opportunities to work on special projects

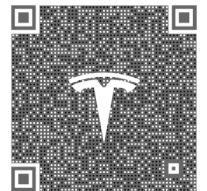

Installing nine Powerwalls on one system

Deploying off-grid energy with the Tesla Disaster Relief Team in the Bahamas after Hurricane Dorian

If you're interested in working for Tesla Energy as a Licensed Electrician, Contact solarjobs@tesla.com or scan this QR Code to see the job listings.

Tesla Career Paths

Tesla strives to keep its staff motivated, dedicated and engaged with their work. One way this is accomplished is by offering clear career paths and promotion opportunities within the company. Electricians at Tesla are commonly promoted to:

- Project Manager
- Installation Quality Specialist
- Associate Manager
- Technical Trainer
- General Manager
- Field Service Technician