INTRODUCTION:

On June 12, 2020 Governor Andrew Cuomo issued Executive Order No. 203 requiring each local government in the State to adopt a policing reform plan by April 1, 2021. The New York State Police Reform and Reinvention Collaborative guidance issued in August 2020 provided a path to local governments in initiating a dialogue to determine the current status of their municipal police department and to develop and plan the implementation of policies which will build police-community relationships, and which reflect the community's vision for the role of the police.

Orange County Executive Steve Neuhaus quickly assembled a panel of community stakeholders ("the Panel") to review the present practices of the Orange County Sheriff's Office, the only police agency overseen by County Executive Neuhaus. The Panel members are as follows:

The Police Reform and Reinvention Panel ("the Panel") met on three occasions for public meeting and discussion with included community participation on December 10, 2020, January 14, 2021 and January 28, 2021 in a virtual setting due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Public comment was further received by way of published email address and a general public survey which included a comment section in an effort to gauge the public's present impressions of the Orange County Sheriff's Office and which invited additional comments.

To elicit public participation, Orange County created a website dedicated to providing information to the public on the reform process. The website provided information on Panel members, a dedicated police reform email link for citizens to directly make comments or suggestions, a survey created to gather information from members of the public on any interaction and/or experiences they may have had with the Orange County Sheriff's Office, as well as provided links to register to attend the Advisory Panel public meetings, and links to watch recordings of the previous meetings.

Press releases were made to media outlets as well the use of Social Media to announce the formation of the Advisory Panel to advertise public meeting dates and agendas.

Answers to comments and questions submitted via the survey and public forums and the draft plan were posted on the website for public review and comment.

Aside from public forum meetings, the Panel met additionally on November 12, 2021, January 7, 2021, February 4, 2021, and February 8, 2021 to further discuss the issues at hand, community input as received by way of the Survey, email communication to the Panel, and public comment during the Panel meetings, and to propose changes to present practices and procedures as employed by the Orange County Sheriff's Office.

A draft of Plan was published for public comment on the Orange County government website on February 8, 2021.

Open public comment on the February 8, 2021 draft was invited by advertisement on the County's website, news media and social media accounts.

Public Comment received after the Plan was published on February 8, 2021 for the purpose of Public Comment is attached hereto as Attachment A.

Point (PSAP) for all of Orange County, New York. The Department is headed by a Commissioner who is overseen by the County Executive. Within the Division of Emergency Communications, certified (through IAED & APCO) Public Safety Dispatchers handle the task of call taking and dispatching calls received by 911. The Public Safety Dispatchers are overseen by the 911 Director of Operations, who is overseen by the Deputy Commissioner of Emergency Communications, who reports directly to the Commissioner for the Department of Emergency Services. Our Training unit is made up of a Public Safety Dispatch Supervisor and Dispatch Trainer, who oversee all training aspects and the Quality Assurance/Quality Improvement (QA/QI) program for the division.

- b. How are calls routed; how are these decisions made?
 - i. Our 911 Center receives calls for service and processes the call by interviewing the caller using a national protocol (IAED Emergency Medical Dispatch, Emergency Fire Dispatch, or Emergency Police Dispatch), then providing lifesaving instructions or other pre-arrival instructions, while emergency services are responding. Our Center dispatches a “tiered response” in order to shorten the response time to emergencies. The tiered response includes the notification of law enforcement to all medical and/or fire type incidents. It is up to the discretion of the notified law enforcement agency as to whether they respond to those types of calls. The Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) System decides which agencies to notify based on appropriate jurisdiction, removing discretion from the Public Safety Dispatcher to decide who gets dispatched/notified.
 - ii. Orange County has a single dedicated crisis call center number 311. The Orange County Crisis Call Center is co-located with 911 call takers at the Emergency Services Building. The Crisis Call Center staff provide 24/7 clinical telephonic response for mental health, developmental disabilities and substance use disorders; and includes the ability to screen for substance use disorders, complete the NYS required LOCADTR tool to determine substance use disorder level of care, and schedule an appointment for individuals in need of treatment.
- c. Describe what social services support systems are available to the 911 Call Center in order to appropriately route calls for service.
 - i. Our 911 Center is also home to the Orange County Crisis Call Center (311). The Crisis Call Center stands ready to provide collaborative, professional, and peer telephone support/outreach, to anyone in need of emotional support, crisis intervention, or connection to social services. - a. Using Summonses Rather than Warrantless Arrests for Specified Offenses
 - i. The Use of Summonses as opposed to executing a summary arrest is generally governed by the General Order on Arrest Procedure.
 1. Presently, the General Order on this point no specific instructions in Arrest Procedures G.O. of when to use a criminal summons vs. arrest warrant or custodial warrantless arrest based on civilian complaint when the Deputy is not the victim/complainant.
 - a. In contrast to full custodial arrest, citation/summons allows the officer to release the individual without the need for transport to the station, formal booking, fingerprinting and pretrial release decisions.
 - b. A written policy which would more specifically guide our Deputy Sheriff's on this issue is under review and consideration.
 - c. Under the new Bail Reform statute, all offenders accused of non-violent felonies and misdemeanors must be released on their own recognizance and strong consideration must be had for release from the station with an Appearance Ticket to appear in Court.
- b. Diversion Programs are offered and supervised by the courts in Orange County.

- c. Hot-Spot Policing and Focused Deterrence
 - i. Partnerships with City police departments
 - 1. The OCSO partners with the City of Middletown Police Department and the City of Newburgh Police Department for the following special enforcement details:

 - iv. Orange County currently provides a Mobile Mental Health response 24 hours per day, seven days per week, and 365 days per year.
 - v. The OCSO also ensures de-escalation training and annual in-service training which specifically incorporates the subjects of assigned to the Crime Analysis Center coordinates with the investigator designated as the primary on the case.

- v. Investigators have been trained by the Orange County District Attorney's Office in the methods and indicators for identifying incidents as hate crimes. The training further provided information and resources to assist supervisors in the preparation for prosecution and the procedures that the Orange County District Attorney's Office has in place to coordinate with the investigating agency.
- vi. The Orange County Sheriff's Office also has two full time investigators assigned to the F.B.I. Hudson Valley White Collar Crime Task Force. Investigators assigned to this unit can adopt cases that fall within defined federal hate crime statutes.
- f. The County Executive has established the Reform and Reinvention Collaborative Advisory Panel to act as his Citizen and Professional advisory board.
- g. Police Statistics and Transparency Act

After review by the Panel of the present publication practices of the OCSO's recruitment efforts and applicant pool development, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the OCSO shall confer bi-annually with Orange County's Deputy Commissioner for Employee Relations and Affirmative Action Plan Officer, presently Tamara Hunter, regarding its efforts to ensure the OCSO is an inclusive environment that provides all employees with an opportunity advance their careers successfully, that the OCSO employees are of a diversity which will project a fair-mindedness to all those who come into contact with the members of the OCSO, and to ensure the OCSO maintains a culture of diversity.
- p. After review by the Panel of the present OCSO's recruitment, applicant pool development, and deputy sheriff professional development, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed that that the OCSO shall endeavor to establish a part-time civilian position of Chief Diversity Officer (CDO). The CDO will be a person who is a professional in this field of work who will assist the existing workforce with diversity, equity, and inclusion in all matters of recruitment, hiring, professional development and employee retention. It is the Panel's hope that the CDO will assist the OCSO to bridge the public perception gap which may exist between police agencies and the public and further the OCSO's dedication to a highly trained, professional workforce who treat all with respect and dignity. Thus, it is the Panel's recommendation that the OCSO work in collaboration with the Orange County Department of Human Resources and the Orange County Department of Human Rights to create the part-time civilian position of CDO and that this collaboration will work together to properly vet any proposed hires. The creation of this part-time position should have no budgetary impact on present funding for the OCSO.

2. Non-Civil Service Positions

When a vacancy exists within the Sheriff's Office which requires the appointment of a member to a non-civil service position, the Chief Deputy Sheriff will post a Departmental Memorandum, on the Deputy Sheriff bulletin board at least ten (10) days prior to the last filing date listing the following:

 - p. Administrative Skill in Utilizing Departmental Procedures
 - q. Time Management
- iii. OCSO incentivize/track/memorialize when Deputies are involved in community-oriented activities which are not enforcement related
 - 1. Deputy Sheriffs: Tracked and reviewed during personnel evaluations in the area of interpersonal skills and community relations
 - 2. Supervisors: Additional tracked and reviewed in area of Citizen Orientation and Communications
- iv. OCSO fosters diversity in its workforce and Diversity in its leadership team
 - 1. The Sheriff has promoted diversity and minority inclusion in the selection of deputies and has been successful in appointing women. Minority candidates are rarer on the eligible list and appointment is based on availability.
 - 2. The second method the Sheriff's Office workforce is selected is through requests for transfer from currently serving police officers in Orange County. This method provides the Sheriff's Office with deputies that already have completed their basic training and is very cost effective. The selection is made through interview (a board conducts interviews) and review of the candidates' law enforcement experience. Individual police officers apply for transfer at their own election. It is common knowledge among police officers serving in Orange County that the OCSO accepts transfers.
 - 3. The OCSO's leadership team must select most positions via the Civil Service test process described above. In those positions (not necessarily leadership per se) wherein the Sheriff's Office has open choices from a candidate pool the OCSO seeks diversity and minority representation in its workforce.

- v. OCSO instills a culture of diversity and fairness reflective of your formal rules and policies.
 1. Outlined in the OCSO's Bias Based Profiling General Order and the Ethics General Order, the OCSO engages in a multitude of policy development and enforcement measures to ensure consistent attention is paid to diversity and fairness amongst its work force.
 2. Bias training and Micro Aggression Training (for further information see Training section)
 - a. The OCSO prohibits biased based policing. Deputy Sheriffs are initially trained in the police academy in the areas of Cultural Diversity/Bias Related Incidents/Sexual Harassment. The OCSO provides Annual Retraining Program/ In-Service Training includes blocks of instruction in Harassment/Discrimination and Police Ethics where deputies are trained in biased based profiling and diversity issues including legal aspects. A documented annual administrative review of agency practices including citizen concerns and corrective measures taken which include a review of: citizen complaints/comments, training, recommendations for changes in procedures/practices, Vehicle and Traffic stops, consent searches, field interviews and arrest data.
 3. Rewarding the intervenor
 - a. The OCSO Code of Ethics and the General Order regarding Disciplinary Procedures and Rules of Conduct includes the duty to intervene. In fact, the OCSO "encourages" deputies to intervene at the time of biased policing incidents.
 - i. The Code of Ethics states in pertinent part, "...serve the community; to safeguard lives and property..... I will never act officiously or permit personal feeling, prejudices, political beliefs,to influence my decisions.I will never engage in acts of corruption or bribery, nor will I condone such acts by other deputies."
 - ii. The General Order on Disciplinary Procedures states that any OCSO Office employee who becomes aware of any violation of any law, rule, regulations, general orders and other policies or procedures, by any Office employee, shall immediately notify their supervisory officer.
 - b. The Duty to Intervene is also addressed in the Use of Force Policy as follows:
 - i. Any Deputy Sheriff present and observing another officer using force that s/he reasonably believes to be clearly beyond that which is objectively reasonable shall intercede to prevent the use of unreasonable force, if and when the Deputy has a realistic opportunity to prevent harm.
 - ii. A Deputy Sheriff who observes another officer use force that exceeds the degree of force as outlined in this General Order shall promptly report these observations to a Supervisor and any member of the Office of Professional Standard and Compliance (PS&C) by telephone if not on site.

- iii. Deputy Sheriff's shall not use any more of these techniques, or combination of techniques than is required to gain compliance to effect an arrest.
 - iv. Note: The Orange County Sheriff's Office does not teach or justify the use of any restraints used for the purpose of physical control which applies pressure to the throat or windpipe of a person in a manner that is intended to hinder breathing or reduce the intake of air.
 - v. The use of any choke holds which may hinder or reduce the intake of air should only be employed at the level where deadly physical force is justified.
 - b. After review by the Panel of the present publication practices of the OCSO's governing policies and procedures, and after reviewing public comment thereon, is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the OCSO shall publish all General Orders, policies and procedures which govern all Deputy Sheriffs on its website to the extent such documents would not compromise the manner in which criminal investigations are conducted and/or which would otherwise be subject to the Freedom of Information Law.
 - c. Tracking and Reviewing Use of Force and Identifying Misconduct
 - i. Use of Force Reporting
 - 1. OCSO General Orders require that all use of force incidents be reported by the Deputy Sheriff to their supervisor.
 - 2. Weapons Discharge Reporting
 - a. All members of the OCSO shall report the discharge of their weapon whether on or off duty at a time when a person could be struck by a bullet from the weapon immediately or as soon as practicable of the incident in verbal form and in writing within 48 hours. This exceeds compliance with the newly enacted State law requirement to do so.
 - ii. Review of Use of Force
 - 1. All uses of force must be reported, even those that do not result in injury.
 - 2. The review process determines whether the employee followed established Policy and Procedure or used excessive force in the performance of their duties. Reviewers include Commissioned Officers, the Chief Deputy, members of PS&C and the Sheriff (or his designee, in most cases the Undersheriff).
 - 3. If the use of force utilized is determined to be consistent with the established Policy and Procedures the use of force is determined to be "Justified and Appropriate".
 - 4. In those cases where the use of force is determined to be inconsistent with the established Policy and Procedure an internal investigation is conducted to determine the level of misconduct and the appropriate discipline that is warranted by the facts of the case.
 - 5. If discipline must be imposed it also must be consistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement wherein employees have the right to appeal their discipline to neutral arbitration.
 - 6. In cases where a serious disciplinary outcome is imposed the Sheriff's Office advises and consults with Orange County Department of Human Resources and the Law Department.
 - 7. Discipline can range from a written reprimand to separation from service.
 - iii. Independent Review of Use of Force or Misconduct

1. Misconduct cases within the Sheriff's Office are passed through a system of review.
 - a. In cases of misconduct the OCSO practices progressive discipline.
 - i. Progressive discipline is a process where minor misconduct is addressed through re-training and steadily increasing discipline for repeated misconduct. Of course, dependent of the severity of the misconduct (untruthfulness and other serious violations) the misconduct could result in immediate serious discipline without following the track of progressive discipline. Discipline can range from written reprimand up to separation from service.
 - ii. Discipline is governed by contractual agreement with the collective bargaining agencies that represent the employees. At the last step any dispute related to discipline ends in neutral arbitration.
2. Misconduct which rises to the level of potential criminal conduct.
 - a. Where identified, a bifurcated investigation (one criminal and one employment based) is implemented and the Office of District Attorney is advised and consulted with.
 - b. In cases involving the use of deadly physical force that results in serious physical injury and/or death of an employee or another person, the OCSO has entered into an Memorandum of Understanding with the Office of District Attorney that the New York State Police shall be the lead criminal investigation agency. Those types of cases can also be reviewed by state agencies including the Office of the NYS Attorney General pursuant to the Executive Orders which specifically address Use of Force Resulting in the Death of a Civilian.
- i. OCSO' Personnel Early Warning System
 - a. The OCSO has a responsibility to its employees and the community to identify and assist employees that demonstrate symptoms of job stress and performance problems. Although no set of criteria can determine these traits, it is important that certain "risk indicators" be reviewed routinely as possible indicators of behavior patterns. The Sheriff will annually review the items contained in this section in addition to reviews that shall be initiated by the supervisory staff.
 - b. The following threshold or trigger levels represents will initiate a review of employee actions or behavior for Personnel Early Warning System:
 - i. Disciplinary Problems
 - ii. Internal Affairs Complaints
 - iii. Vehicle Pursuits
 - iv. Civil Litigation
 - v. Vehicle accidents involving agency vehicles
 - vi. Negative performance evaluations
 - vii. Civilian complaints
 - viii. Excessive sick leave usage
 - ix. Worker's Compensation claims
 - x. Adverse or extreme personality changes
 - xi. Other personal issues
 - xii. Use of force incidents
 - xiii. Tardiness
 - xiv. Unexcused Absences

- ii. Review of “sentinel” or “near-miss” events is included in the Personnel Early Warning System policy.
- iii. Non-punitive measures designed to improve officer performance
 - a. A Deputy who is not meeting standards dictated by the Sheriff’s office Policy and Procedure is first a subject of conduct counselling.
 - b. Conduct counselling is not discipline; it is a review of actions and activities of a Deputy by a Supervisor who retrain the Deputy regarding whatever shortcoming has been identified.
 - c. If the conduct of the Deputy does not improve, the Deputy may be counselled again or placed with another Deputy (this Deputy that they are placed with would be a Field Training Officer (FTO) generally used to train new Deputies). The FTO will give the Deputy more intensive retraining over a period and produce reports relative to the progress the retraining Deputy is making.
 - d. If the Deputy still does not improve then they are subject to discipline due to inability or inaptitude.
- d. Internal Accountability for Misconduct
 - i. Peer misconduct reporting requirements at OCSO
 - 1. The Rules of Conduct and the General Order on Internal Affairs require a Deputy to report the misconduct of a peer.
 - ii. Process for investigating reports of misconduct
 - 1. The General Order on Internal Affairs governs the investigative process for suspected misconduct by a deputy sheriff.
 - 2. Substantiated and finalized misconduct is available to the public.
 - iii. Retraining as a result of substantiated complaints of misconduct and settlements or adverse verdicts in lawsuits to reduce the risk of future misconduct
 - 1. These types of incidents are routinely addressed by supervisors during daily pre-shift rollcall and included in future trainings as warranted. Depending on the event these incidents would be discussed by supervisory staff to develop future training strategies and policy updates.
 - 2. Supervisors would also send out written directives to all Deputies
 - iv. Arbitration process in place to ensure impartiality when reviewing potential misconduct
 - v. Referral to the OCDA for prosecution where criminal misconduct is found as described above.
 - vi. The Off Duty conduct by deputies is governed by the Rules of Conduct policy.
- e. After review by the Panel of the present publication practices of the OCSO’s governing policies and procedures, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the Orange County Sheriff’s Office shall publish all General Orders, Policies and Procedures which govern all Deputy Sheriffs on its website to the extent such documents would not compromise the manner in which criminal investigations are conducted and/or which would otherwise be subject to the Freedom of Information Law
- f. Citizen Oversight and Other External Accountability
 - i. Reporting Misconduct by a member of the SO
 - 1. Presently, all complaints, including anonymous complaints, shall be accepted in person, in writing or by telephone.
 - 2. After review by the Panel of the present system to make a complaint regarding the conduct of any OCSO employee, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the Orange County Sheriff’s Office shall create a space on its website where a citizen may make an anonymous or identified complaint and/or complement regarding any act by any of its employees to the Office of Professional Standards and Compliance by publicizing a telephone number, and email address, and to create a button on its website where a citizen may make a complaint about any member of service.

- a. The complaint and/or complement will be transmitted to a member of service of the rank of Lieutenant or higher a designated by the Orange County Sheriff for investigation.
- b. The outcome of any investigation of any complaint as indicated above shall be reported by the OCSO to any identified complainant.
- c. Should the citizen not recall the name and/or badge number of the deputy sheriff(s) with whom they interacted, the Office of Professional Standards and Compliance shall assist the citizen in so identifying the deputy sheriff(s).

ii. Investigation Outcomes

1. Prior to the repeal of New York Human Rights Law section 50-a, the outcome of any investigation was not communicated as such communication was prohibited by statute.
2. Since the repeal of 50-a, to the extent the Public Officer's Law allows, such information is communicated to the public by request.

iii. Legislative oversight of the SO

1. Public Safety Committee
2. Funding powers

iv. Joint County Executive and Legislative Oversight of the OCSO

1. Orange County Police Advisory Board in an advisory capacity

v. Current accreditations held by the SO

1. NYS DCJS Law Enforcement Accreditation Program (NYS LEAP)
2. The Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA)
3. NYS LEAP SWAT Accreditation

vi. Community Comment Which Tracks the Level of Trust in the OCSO

1. The Sheriff's Office is unique among law enforcement agencies in that Sheriff is elected every four years, unlike Chiefs of Police or Superintendent of State Police. By standing for election or re-election the candidate and/or Sheriff is selected by the people to serve. If the people lose trust in the Sheriff or disagree with the actions of the OCSO, they may, and history in Orange County and throughout NYS shows the people do, vote the Sheriff out of office. Unlike any other method of survey research, the vote of the people is direct and reflects their will.

g. Data, Technology and Transparency

- i. Incident data is reported out by the Division of Criminal Justice Services and is publicly available
- ii. Data driven policing strategies
 1. The OCSO does not formulate its own data from which it then makes policing strategy decisions.
 2. The OCSO does obtain data driven requests from New York State to enforce certain crimes and/or vehicle and traffic conditions in certain geographic areas.
- iii. Policies are presently available by FOIL request.
 1. The Orange County Sheriff's Office is committed to publishing our Policies and Procedures for review by the public on the county website (Sheriff's Office page) consistent with advice that we will receive from the county Law Department.

iv. Body Worn Cameras/Dash Cams

1. The Orange County Sheriff's Office has previously explored the purchase of dash and body cameras. The cost of the cameras is relatively inexpensive, but the storage and encryption of the data is the substantial cost associated with these items. Previous estimates for these items were in the hundreds of thousands of dollars of equipment storage and maintenance.
2. After review by the Panel of the present lack of body worn camera system in place at the OCSO, after recognizing that the OCSO needs a body worn camera system for its sworn members of service, after acknowledging the prohibitive costs associated with storage of body worn camera footage, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the Orange County Sheriff's Office shall endeavor to seek out funding sources outside of Orange County taxpayer funds to fund a body worn camera program, which would include the body worn cameras, administration of the program, including training, and storage systems to collect and store the body worn camera footage for three (3) full years from the date of the incident recorded.

VIII. Recruiting and Supporting Excellent Personnel

a. OCSO efforts to recruit a Diverse Workforce

i. Agency reflective the diversity of the community it serves

1. The OCSO believes it is essential that law enforcement agencies reflect and represent the diversity of the communities they serve. Diversity defined not only in terms of race and gender, but also religion, sexual orientation language ability, and background, is a critically important tool to build trust in communities. Research has demonstrated that when members of the public believe that when law enforcement represents them, understand them, and respond to them – and when communities perceive authorities as fair, legitimate and accountable in deepens trust and confidence. This trust is essential to defusing tension, solving crimes and creating a system in which residents view law enforcement as fair and just.
2. Entry level positions advertised through Orange County Civil Service announcements, available on the internet, posted in public buildings and newspapers, current agency personnel notifying qualified applicants.
3. Like most agencies throughout Orange County the OCSO does not reflect the racial diversity of the county but we have been successful in increasing the number of minorities and women in the workforce. The Civil Service process does not produce enough prospective candidates that would substantially raise racial diversity in the OCSO. However, in those appointments that are not controlled by a list (part-time School Security Deputies and Pistol Permit Investigations) the OCSO does reflect the community we serve in terms of racial minorities and diversity.
 - a. The demographic breakdown of the 112 full-time civil service employees as reported by the individual (there are some vacancies at this time) is as follows:
 - i. 72 white male
 - ii. 8 white female
 - iii. 5 black male
 - iv. 9 Hispanic male
 - v. 1 Hispanic female
 - vi. 1 male Pacific Islander

- vii. 1 male American Indian
 - viii. 1 female Asian
 - b. The demographic breakdown of the 69 part-time Sheriff-appointed employees as reported by the individual is as follows:
 - i. 38 white male
 - ii. 2 white female
 - iii. 20 Hispanic male
 - iv. 1 Hispanic female
 - v. 6 black male
 - vi. 1 black female
 - vii. 1 male Asian
- ii. What the OCSO can do better to re-evaluate hiring practices and testing to remove barriers in hiring underrepresented communities
 1. Testing is controlled by the NYS Civil Service Commission. The OCSO seeks candidates that can expand our minority and diversity percentages
 2. The OCSO has been successful in developing diverse officers through appointments to investigator and other special assignments encouraging others to set their goals higher. The current OCSO retention rate is excellent.
 3. As proposed above, it is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the OCSO shall publish all requirements to become a police officer on its website so that the public may access this information.
 4. The OCSO will continue to publicize the release of any civil service qualifying exam for the position of Deputy Sheriff.
 5. After review by the Panel of the present publication practices of the OCSO's recruitment efforts and applicant pool development, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the OCSO shall confer bi-annually with Orange County's Deputy Commissioner for Employee Relations and Affirmative Action Plan Officer, presently Tamara Hunter, regarding its efforts to ensure the OCSO is an inclusive environment that provides all employees with an opportunity advance their careers successfully, that the OCSO employees are of a diversity which will project a fair-mindedness to all those who come into contact with the members of the OCSO, and to ensure the OCSO maintains a culture of diversity.
 6. After review by the Panel of the present OCSO's recruitment, applicant pool development, and deputy sheriff professional development, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed that that the OCSO establish a part-time civilian position of Chief Diversity Officer (CDO). The CDO will be a person who is a professional in this field of work who will assist the existing workforce with diversity, equity, and inclusion in all matters of recruitment, hiring, professional development and employee retention. It is the Panel's hope that the CDO will assist the OCSO to bridge the public perception gap which may exist between police agencies and the public and further the OCSO's dedication to a highly trained, professional workforce who treat all with respect and dignity. Thus, it is the Panel's recommendation that the OCSO work in collaboration with the Orange County Department of Human Resources and the Orange County Department of Human Rights to create the part-time civilian position of CDO and that this collaboration will work together to properly vet any proposed hires. The creation of this part-time position should have no budgetary impact on present funding for the OCSO.

reviewed in conjunction with the Orange County Department of Mental Health to ensure the most up to date and best practices are implemented as they are updated, that the training will be adapted based upon recommendations received by the Orange County Department of Mental Health and/or, in the case of Crisis Intervention Training, as issued by the New York State Office of Mental Health and Hygiene.

- ii. After review by the Panel of the present training practices of the OCSO, including in the areas of de-escalation techniques (including police response to mental health matters and identification of persons with disabilities), implicit and explicit bias, racial profiling or race based decision making, and use of force, and after reviewing public comment thereon, it is proposed by the Reinvention and Reform Panel that the OCSO shall publish all training requirements, including all scheduled training programming, a short description of the training, the duration of the training, an indication of how often the training must/should occur which is applicable to all Deputy Sheriffs, and the agency providing the training on its website to the extent such publication would not compromise the manner in which criminal investigations are conducted and/or which would otherwise be subject to the Freedom of Information Law. Should the training include instruction on de-escalation techniques (including police response to mental health matters and identification of persons with disabilities), implicit and explicit bias, racial profiling or race-based decision making, and/or use of force, the training description shall indicate the amount of time devoted to instruction in those areas.

The panels has done a great job with its reform plan. There was very little guidance or direction provided from the state. People should not confuse the resource guide that the state provided as guidance. It appears to be nothing more than a combination articles (234 citations in first 107 pages), some of which are inconsistent with NYS laws; i.e the section on hiring and promotion is in conflict with NYS Civil Service Law. Will the state provide funding for any of these recommendations or are these additional unfunded mandates?

Answer: Thank you

Email Received on 2/9/2021

Is there a plan in place to revoke this bail reform and if so what parameters are included in those changes. Not trying to throw out the baby with the bath water, just want to protect both our law enforcement and the residents.

Answer: Thank you for your comment. The NYS bail reform act is not within the scope of this panel in its review of the Sheriff's Office.

Email Received on 2/10/2021

Can I ask how many times the panel has met and can you email me a copy of the transcripts of all the meetings. Concerned stakeholder. Thank you.

Public Comment Tele Conference; 2/10/2021 at 4:00 p.m.

Allen McClain – I live in Middle... uh, the Town of Wallkill. My comment is that this, uh, process has not been transparent. Um, the fact that you are the first call that I've found out about and logged on to, um, we were not able to one see who was on the call, other comments from other participants. I wrote an email the day before of, I think it was 30 questions, as of today I have not received a response to my questions. This process has not been transparent whatsoever, um, the fact that this board was made up and didn't include anyone from the community except for heads of other departments, um, shows that this Department had no intention on including anyone in this process but the people that they wanted included in the process, as well as the fact that you have known white supremacists in this Department that people have written about like myself, uh, these issues have not been addressed by this Department. Um, as well as the fact that you guys came to a conclusion on your policies and procedures in such a short amount of time. I will continue to write emails and ask questions and hopefully I will eventually get a response to my questions I have asked.

Mercedes Ortiz, Village of Walden – and I'm wondering how you all are on the final draft of this police reform when like y'all haven't been transparent at all. Like I have, like it's very hard to find out when these conferences, when these meetings are and today's at 4 o'clock, what about people who work and aren't able to hop on these calls. Like it's not fair to everybody else who cares about police reform. I just feel that this meeting was extremely rushed and I don't know the reasons why.

Unnamed caller (same as first caller, reading) – the Orange County Sheriff...uh, the Orange County Executive Steve Neuhaus, the Sheriff and his Department has the duty to the community it serves to make this process inclusive. This process has not been inclusive to the people in this community. This Department is preventing members of the community and to be more specific black, brown, people of color, and marginalized from being involved in this process. Moving forward I expect you will reach out to the communities ah, above as well as making these people more inclusive as well as easily available. I would like to...let me see...it is, is this meeting going to be offered in another language as Orange County has a larger, um, larger communities that don't speak English, is this meeting going to be made available to people, is this process going to be made available to people without internet connection, without internet access, without computer access, as well as phone access? Um, what has the Sheriff's Department done to address the white supremacist in their Department? What has the Sheriff's Department done to include other communities in this process, um, the survey that you guys have listed is that survey gonna be available in other languages so those communities can be involved in this process as well? Um, what forms or methods has this Department done to ensure that contact is made with other communities? And aren't these meetings supposed to be open to the public, so what has been done to ensure that the public is involved in this process? Like the fact that you're having a meeting at 4 p.m. in the afternoon when people are at work and at school during these hours? Is there going to be another follow up meeting after this for additional public comment?

Patricia McMillian, Warwick, NY – I want to reiterate what some of the earlier comments were. The process has not been transparent, there has been no other language that that the meetings the surveys the reports has been translated in, the panel has not been representative or is not representative of the community, it seems to have just business and organizational leaders, and in that sense completely is not in compliance with the guidelines put forth for the EO 203 process, um, and one huge glaring issue is the complaint process that's proposed, which I imagine has been in place all along, how can you have people complain to the very agency that they are complaining about? There has to be an independent agency that will accept complaints and do the investigation.
