

Learning Management System (LMS) student account creation/update

New Student Guide

Orange County Fire Services

Any student wishing to take a NY State Class must have an active account in LMS

Eventually, this is how everyone will sign up for any state offered training in Orange County (and the rest of the State)

Welcome to the NYS Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Services (DHSES) Learning Management System.

DHSES LMS is designed to facilitate the scheduling of courses and retention of records by DHSES. This website will give you access to the current available

New DHSES LMS Users

To request a new Portal account, click here New User Account Access Request or click on the WebForms on the upper right side corner under the Resources band and select "New User Account Access Request." (NOTE: When filling out the New User Account Access Request Webform, the Training Academy that you will be asked to choose is the primary training office where you most often attend trainings).

The Training Academy you choose will not limit your ability to take training with any other Training Academies of DHSES. This will help the Training Academy to assign you to one of our DHSES LMS administrators.

DHSES Training Academies

- Office of Disaster Recovery (DR)
- Office of Emergency Management (OEM)
- Office of Fire Prevention and Control (OFPC)
- Office of Interoperable and Emergency Communications (OIEC)
