

TRAINING BULLETIN

BASIC WILDLAND FIRE SUPPRESSION

This program was developed by the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation Forest Rangers and the New York State office of Fire Prevention & Control for firefighters involved in Wildland fire suppression. The course contents include jurisdiction and responsibilities, fire behavior, Wildland fire elements and size-up, use of tools and equipment, general concepts related to fire suppression, securing the control line and standards for safety.

Designed for:	Fire service personnel
Course length:	12 hours
Prerequisites:	FF I or equivalent
Min / Max # of students:	15 / 30

Dates:

Times:

Location:

Instructor:

Registration: