

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) at the Orange County Sheriff's Office

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) was signed into Federal law in 2003 by President George W. Bush. It was created to address the problem of sexual misconduct in all confinement facilities. In 2012, the U.S. Department of Justice released national PREA standards to prevent, detect and respond to sexual abuse and sexual harassment in confinement facilities.

The Orange County Sheriff's Office Corrections Division is responsible for protecting the rights of inmates placed into the custody of the Sheriff. The OCSO has established a zero-tolerance policy for all forms of sexual abuse and sexual harassment and acts to prevent, detect and respond to all allegations and incidents of sexual misconduct. All Orange County Department of Corrections employees, volunteers and contractors receive training on their duties and responsibilities under the Department's zero-tolerance policy and are informed that they are required to immediately report any incident or allegation of sexual abuse and sexual harassment. The ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE CORRECTIONS DIVISION investigates all allegations of offender-on-offender and staff-on-offender sexual misconduct. You can report sexual misconduct in multiple ways:

Information for family and friends of those in custody of the ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE CORRECTIONS DIVISION

The Orange County Department of Corrections takes every report of sexual misconduct seriously and all allegations will be referred for investigation. All staff, volunteers and contractors receive training in the awareness and reporting of sexual misconduct. All victims will be provided with medical and mental health care. Staff/inmate sexual misconduct is against the law in New York.

THE ORANGE COUNTY CORRECTIONS DIVISION RECOGNIZES THE RIGHT OF OFFENDERS TO BE FREE FROM SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

What is PREA?

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) is federal law that went into effect in September of 2003 and prohibits sexual misconduct in correctional settings such as prisons, jails, lockups, juvenile facilities and Immigration Services/ICE detention facilities. Sexual misconduct under this law includes:

- Offender-on-offender sexual assault and abuse
- Staff-on-offender sexual misconduct (sexual/inappropriate relationships with offenders)
- Offender-on-offender and staff-on offender sexual harassment

The Orange County Corrections Division has zero tolerance for sexual misconduct of any kind and will impose discipline for such misconduct, up to and including termination and criminal prosecution for staff as well as discipline for offenders who victimize other offenders. Incidents of sexual misconduct will also be referred to law enforcement when applicable. ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE CORRECTIONS DIVISION policies prohibiting sexual misconduct apply to all offenders, employees, contractors, and volunteers.
