

Civil War Living History Day

Hill-Hold Museum

Sunday, May 20th, 2018

CIVIL WAR CAMP LIFE!

Civil War Living History event, May 20, 2018, 10am – 4pm, Orange County Hill-Hold Museum, 128 Rte. 416, Campbell Hall, NY. The event is hosted by the 15th NYVC and 124th NYSV, in cooperation with the Orange County Parks and Recreation, in addition to, The Friends of Hill-Hold and Brickhouse Museum. Visitors will find a period encampment with tents, busy soldiers and civilians in period dress. The public will get a first-hand experience of, how soldiers cooked, drilled, carried out mail call, pay call, medical practice, fired weapons, slept, communicated with other units and home, plus see how soldiers spent their leisure time in camp. Watch history come alive while taking an informative guided tour. Witness the various activities that made a camp noteworthy. So mark the day and make a point to stop by and absorb it all in, with Free Admission! For more information contact Ken Colomba, Tel# 845-986-9810, kc15nyvc@optonline.net or Jim Meaney, Tel# 917-453-8573, jgmny1@gmail.com

Orange County, NY, Civil War Life Preservation Committee
(124th NYSV & 15th NYVC)